Props & Staging of Weapons: Beer Glass, rifle loaded and staged at Telegraph, shotgun O/E at Adobe Wall, pistols loaded and holstered.

While you are standing in the Saloon having a drink of beer with your favorite person, holding your beer glass in one hand, Charlie One-Eye, that low down Comandcharo chicken stealing, no good scoundrel starts calling you names and throwing rocks at you. Ducking you see that Charlie has now drawn his pistol and starts shooting at you. At the sound of the buzzer you place your beer glass carefully on the bar, so as not to spill any of your drink, draw your first pistol and engage pistol targets in a Nevada sweep, (P-1-P-3). Holster that pistol, go to the Telegraph Office, pick up your rifle and engage the rifle targets in any order, hitting each one twice. Place your O/E rifle back at the telegraph Office, go the adobe wall, draw your second pistol and engage P-4 and P-5 alternating until your pistol is empty. Holster your pistol, pick up your O/E shotgun, and engage shotgun swingers outside to inside once each. Go to the unloading table, stage is completed.
