Having gambled most of the night way yesterday, you are feeling lucky and want to play again. But that cowpoke you took to the cleaners yesterday has other ideas. He wants his money back and has pulled down on you.

At the sound of the buzzer, still holding the shot glass, you pull your hidden derringer (laying on the bar covered by a handkerchief) and fire at the water balloon. Return the derringer and the shot glass to the bar top, draw your first pistol and shoot five pistol targets in any order. Holster your first pistol, stepping over to your O/E shotgun, you load two round and engage the first popper shotgun target, load two more rounds and engage the second popper shotgun target. Stage your O/E shotgun, draw your second pistol and engage the small swinger target five times. Holster second pistol. Stage is complete go to the unloading table.
