

I LOVE MY SHOTGUN!

Pittsburgh's Wild Irish Rose and Hoghead McLead have gone on the road and left you in charge of the gun store. Unfortunately raiders have heard that they are out of town and are planing some discount shopping. Hoping to use Rose's fierce reputation to your advantage you try to convince the raiders that Rose is in the store.

When two raiders break in the front door you yell "I love my shotgun" and blast both back into the street. Load up again and give them two more shots.

Put the shotgun down and go to the window and grab your rifle, Yell "I love my rifle" then shoot four raiders twice each (DO NOT double tap OR sweep the targets). You hear more breaking in the back door so put the rifle down and go to the back and Yell "I love my pistols" then shoot the five raiders with one pistol then the second.

Start holding empty shotgun, at the Beep Yell "I love my shotgun," load and shoot the two targets, load again and shoot same targets again. Move to the window, put down the open shotgun and pick up the rifle. Yell "I love my rifle" and shoot through the window at the four targets twice each (you CAN NOT double tap OR sweep). Place the open rifle down and go to the other side of the stage and yell "I love my pistols" and shoot the five targets once each with both pistols.

Ammunition requirement : 10 pistol, 8 rifle, 4 shotgun
